

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

The Parochial Church Council of the Minster Church of St Cuthburga, Wimborne Minster (“the PCC”)

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller’s possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the “GDPR”).

2. Who are we?

The PCC is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The PCC complies with its obligations under the GDPR by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by using its best endeavours to protect personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring to its best ability that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our constitution;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the Minster Church and its mission;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To inform you of news, events, activities, training courses and services at the Minster Church, including groups under the aegis of, or in association with, the PCC;
- To inform you of news, events, activities, training courses and services in the Benefice of Wimborne Minster and the Northern Villages and in the Salisbury Diocese.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Your explicit consent so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities, training courses and services at the Minster Church and the Northern Villages, and process your gift aid donations, and keep you informed about diocesan events;
- Processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, social security or social protection law;
- There is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will be shared only with other members of the Minster Church or with members of groups under the aegis of or in association with the PCC in order to carry out a service to other church members or for purposes connected with the Minster Church and/or the Northern Villages.

6. How long do we keep your personal data? We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the guide “Keep or Bin: Care of Your Parish Records” which is available from the Church of England website.

Specifically, we retain electoral roll data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate; and parish registers (baptisms, marriages, funerals) permanently.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the PCC holds about you;
- The right to request that the PCC corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the PCC to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time
- The right to request that the data controller provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable)
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable);
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

8. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Privacy Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.
