Future Events in November

Witchampton Breakfast Church – A beautiful queen - a wicked Prime Minister - a wise and kindly Uncle... But what happens in the end?

Join us at 9am on Sun 4th Nov at Witchampton Village Hall to find out!

Everyone is welcome for breakfast and a short informal act of all-age worship.

Remembrance Service – this year will be at Witchampton Church at 10am on Sunday 11th November and moving into the church yard at 10.45 where anyone who does not wish to attend the service in church may join the congregation. This is a very special service of remembrance where we hope to have a copy of a new remembrance book compiled by a member of the Minster congregation available.

Fundraising for Wimborne Food Bank – both Holt and Hinton Martel had a lovely cards of thanks from Nick Bold, the Wimborne Foodbank Coordinator, thanking everyone for their contributions at the Harvest Service and Supper. He says, “Unfortunately demand for the Foodbank continues to grow being up about 30% on last year”. Sara & Liz

Christmas Choirs – Liz Curtis will be organising a special choir again this year for the 9 Lessons and Carols service at Christmas. Please come to Holt Church at 7pm on November 4th and then every Thursday until the service on 16th December, then for supper at the Old Inn afterwards.

Please let Liz know if you are interested 01258 840409 lizziecurtis@hotmail.com

Witchampton is also planning to run a Christmas Choir this year led by Chris Pearce. Please speak to Chris or Suzie if interested.

Service for Those Grieving a Loved One – 4th Nov 3pm All Souls service at Chalbury Church.

Prayer suggestions for:

- Trevor, leader of Open The Book, who worships at Holt Wood Methodists who is unwell.
 - our working group for a ‘Joint Village’ PCC.
 - A fruitful trip to the Sudan for Robin as he travels around the country visiting projects supported by the Salisbury Sudan Medical Link Charity.
 - Rev Brenda Gibson and all who are undergoing treatment.
 - For the clergy team, our PCCs, and our Church Wardens.
 - Sharon and her family to find a good balance of family, work & study.
- For Christian in his work, Ruth working towards her GCSE's and for John - that in all things, we would see God working his purpose out in all of our lives.
