Other Benefice Information

The Minster Green Charity Fair – was opened by Ian Shears of the MARS Trust. Much fun was had and around £5000 raised for the Minster Charities and a more by a number of outside charities on the day.

Kevin Martin's Ordination will be at Salisbury Cathedral on Saturday 30th June at 4.30pm, and invites all who would like to do so to attend. His first Eucharist is at St. Peter's Shaftesbury on Sunday 1st July at 4pm. All welcomed.

Shop Volunteers required – The Minster shop is in need of volunteers. Shifts are negotiable on a voluntary basis and training will be given. There is also a coffee morning on Wed 23rd May to look at the new and exciting plans for the shop relaunch which will be on 4th August. Contact Donna Gosney for more information at: adminassist@wimborneminster.org.uk

Rev Stephen Batty – Rev Stephen Batty, Rector of the Bride Valley Benefice, centred on Burton Bradstock in the Diocese of Salisbury died on Trinity Sunday. Stephen took his curacy at Wimborne Minster. His funeral was held at Sherborne Abbey on 8th June. Moving tribute can be found on the Diocese website.

Safe Car Wash App – Drivers are being urged to report signs of modern slavery at cheap hand car washes using a new smartphone app.

Safe Car Wash asks motorists about a series of indicators of forced labour including the use of children, fearful behaviour, a lack of protective clothing and prices lower than £6.70.

It sends the anonymised data and a GPS position to the National Crime Agency (NCA) and the Gangmasters and Labour Abuse Authority (GLAA) and directs users to the Modern Slavery Helpline.

The app, which is available for download from 4 June, has been launched by The Clewer Initiative, the Church of England's campaign against modern slavery, and the Santa Marta Group, the Catholic Church's anti-slavery project.

Oasis Bereavement Group – The group meeting monthly on 1st Thursdays for lunch and a talk or activity. People from all faiths and none are welcome. A very sociable group with opportunity to share feelings and difficulties as well as the joys in life.
