Other News & Information

Pamphill First School Fete - Saturday 16th July, 12-3pm.

Come and Sing Harvest Praise - on 17th September at the Minster in aid of Wimborne Minster Makes Music. Rehearsals will take place during the day before the concert and it is anticipated there will be over 100 singers with an orchestra. If you are interested in singing then please contact Rev Heather Waldsax.

Peace Haven: Homes for Refugees - Concerned locals are spearheading an initiative to house refugees inspired by a local Methodist. The focus is on a Bournemouth hotel of refugee families from Afghanistan whose breadwinner had risked all their lives to work for British troops. The scheme aims to pay rent on two properties - a flat for Ukrainians and a larger home for an Afghan family. International Care Network - a Dorset charity settling refugees in the area for over 20 years - will provide support. Please pledge £10 (or multiple thereof) a month for a year to move this forward. For further information email Sharen Green at sharen_eappi@msn.com or call 01202 693837

Reading glasses and bras! Both these are being collected for our Sudan friends whose Bishops are visiting us in August. If you have any spares (large bras preferably to be clean and in good order) then please pass them to Rev Suzie or drop off at the Minster.

The Wimborne Community Food Supply at the Allendale Centre is currently growing the pastoral team. If any of our parishioners feel led to offer their love and guidance, bringing an abundance of love, as our Lord loves us, please contact either Dani Baker or the Allendale. We anticipate a commitment of no more than 3 hours. Dani Baker

Food Bank - Most needed this week: small packs of porridge, packs of rice, tomato soup, jars of coffee, tinned garden peas, tinned custard, tinned rice pudding, 4 pack toilet rolls, toothbrushes, washing up liquid, washing pods, packs of sugar, shower gel and shampoo. Please leave contributions in the donation boxes at Witchampton Community Shop (8.30-11 daily) or Furzehill Stores to name but a few... or donate by BACS: A/C: Faithworks Wessex; Sort: 40-52-40; No: 00015300; Ref: Wimborne.

'TALK LIKE A PIRATE ' PARTY in Horton & Chalbury Village Hall

2.30 - 4.30pm
SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 18th

- Treasure Hunt for Doubloons
- Prize for the Best Dressed Pirate (any age!)
- Games and competitions for all ages
- Special pirate-themed tea for everyone!

This is a Family Fun afternoon in aid of the new Horton Parish Room Project, come and hear about it and give us your ideas!

Donations welcome - £5 per person, under 5's free

We pray:

- ✚ For our curate, Rev Sharon, as she is on placement in the Isle of Wight.
- ✚ For local schools as they finish for the summer this week - that the holidays may be fun, that families have enough money for food and for those children for whom 'home' is not a safe or wholesome environment.
- ✚ That the current rise in cases of Covid will be contained with fewer people developing fewer serious complications.
- ✚ For Seb (known to KL congregation) for God's love and protection to enfold him.
- ✚ For the couples marrying this year in our churches, particularly Robert & Meghan marrying on 22nd and Julien & Katryn on 30th.
- ✚ For Eleanor who is ill in hospital and only 14 years old.
- ✚ For the Rickett family as they grieve the loss of Gordon.
- ✚ For the baptism of Calliope at Shapwick.
- ✚ For those undergoing long term treatment and those going through surgery.
- ✚ For justice in our courts and in our legal system.
- ✚ For our new Bishop of Salisbury, Stephen Lake.
