Mothers' Union are looking forward to Jenny Child as our speaker this month. Jenny will talk to us about how global gender equality is central to Mothers' Union and how stories influence how young girls and boys see themselves. If you still have a favourite book from your childhood please bring it to the meeting. This month's meeting is on Thursday 17th October at 2.15 pm in the Church House Lounge. All are welcome

TODAY'S ISSUES CONFRONTED BY YESTERDAY'S GIANTS is the title of this year's Aspects of Spirituality event in the Minster on Monday evenings in November. Suffolk-based writer, story-teller and ventriloquist Amy Scott-Robinson will be talking about Bible prophets facing disillusionment, burn-out, anger and joy - how did they respond and how did God help them through it? Reflection & craft after the serious bit. Wine, soft drinks & cheese biscuits at 7, start at 7.30, finish by 9pm. All welcome. Suggested £5 donation.

The Salisbury Women's Refuge, which the Mothers' Union has supported for many years, would like to give the ladies they are helping some Christmas presents. The Minster congregation has been generous in their support over the years and if you are able to donate a gift such as jewellery, photo frames, scarves, toiletries and Tesco vouchers it would be much appreciated. Please give your donations to a MU member or put them in a bag in the collection box at the back of the Minster from October 1st- 16th. Thank you very much. Di Hiscock

It's that time of year again when we are asking for volunteers to help with Cards For Good Causes, which will be situated in St George's Chapel. This Christmas card shop will be open from around mid October until mid December from 10.00am until 4.00pm with morning and afternoon sessions for helpers. Please contact flickwarwick@gmail.com if you are interested in volunteering.

Bakers Needed for our afternoon cream teas at the Minster, every Thursday between 1pm-3pm from the 4th October. We are seeking bakers who could bake us seasonal cakes on an occasional basis. Ingredients can be provided. For information please email Claire Knitters needed for our seasonal trails which are very popular with young and old visitors to the Minster. We need knitted Hedgehogs, Christmas puddings and biscuits for our Autumn and Christmas trails. We would also love some colourful tea cosies to use at our Afternoon teas. Knitting patterns and wool can be provided.

Staff and volunteer Lanyards. There is a form for requesting a lanyard to be worn when acting on behalf of the Minster in a professional or voluntary capacity. You need one for interacting with members of the public. For example lunch and chat. It is not necessary if NO public interaction REQUIRED i.e. flower arranging/gardening although you can opt to wear one if you wish. There are letters on the desk for clarification on lanyards and on the family news email.
